California Claret

The accompanying cut represents our Bottles of California Claret.
No sham, no humbug about it, but an American label on an American Claret. It doesn't sail under a French flag—this Claret came to us direct from California, nearly a year ago. It is old and the quality first-class—much superior to a French Claret, which costs double. It is bottled by us at our place of business, at the most favorable time, and will be found brilliant, one hundred dozen in stock, of recent bottling.

Price, per dozen, quarts, - $2.50.
Price, per dozen, pints, - $1.75.

Full market price paid for bottles on their return.

MANY MUNICIPAL MEETINGS

CITY HALL WILL BE AN UNUSUALLY BUSY PLACE THIS WEEK.

Councilmen Will Meet To-night—Hyde's Trial Will Begin To-morrow Night—Grand Avenue Widening Again to be Considered—Other Important Meetings of the Week.

The city hall will be an unusually busy place again this week, a large number of municipal meetings having been already listed and more will be arranged during the next day or two. This evening an adjourned meeting of the board of councilmen will be held, at which time the report of the committee on streets giving the petitioners for the extension of Park street to Whalley avenue leave to withdraw, which was left unfinished at the last meeting, owing to a lack of a quorum, will be completed.

To-morrow evening the police commissioners will hold a special meeting and the trial of Patrolman George L. Hyde, charged with uttering false and malicious statements against Captain James Wynn of police headquarters will be begun. All the commissioners having signified their intention of being present, it is expected that the trial will go on without fail. The witnesses in the case have already been summoned. The trial will be held in the city court room.

That much needed improvement, the widening of Grand avenue and St. John street, from State to Olive streets, will also again be discussed at the meeting of the committee on streets to-morrow evening. The petition for the widening has been carefully pigeonholed for the past year and a half in the city hall. The committee on streets have called a special meeting for the sole purpose of considering this proposed widening of Grand avenue.

The chamber of commerce will be represented at the meeting and it is expected that there will also be a large number of citizens present to favor and oppose the proposed improvement. City Engineer Kelly has several layouts prepared, anyone of which if adopted would remedy the existing evil and these layouts will be taken into consideration by the committee.

The committee on buildings will hold its first meeting of the year to-morrow evening, when will be considered the petition of Frank W. Pardee and others for the condemnation of the wooden building on Wooster place, formerly used for General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. An attempt is being made, so it is said, to convert the present building into a tenement house and this plan is decidedly objected to by the property owners and taxpayers in the vicinity. The committee on buildings, which will have to deal with the question is composed of Aldermen Leary and Wright and Councilmen Pierce, Daniel J. Leary and Dewell.

The town fathers will also meet in the town agent's office to-morrow evening, when it is expected Town Counsel Goodhart will make a report concerning matters now pending before the general assembly, which are of interest to the town government.

Wednesday evening the board of public works will hold an adjourned meeting at which time it is said an attempt will be made to elect a superintendent of streets to succeed the late Patrick Doyle. There are a number of candidates in the field, but it is said that no one of them has succeeded in obtaining a sufficient backing to ensure his election to the coveted position. Altogether the coming week promises to be an unusually busy one in and around the city hall.

DAUGHTERS OF SCOTIA.
Scotch Ladies to Form an Auxiliary in Connection With Clan McLeod.

At a meeting of the lady friends of the Clan McLeod, No. 31, Order of Scottish clans, held for the purpose of considering the advisability of forming a ladies' auxiliary in connection with the clans for social, fraternal and beneficial purposes, it was unanimously decided to have such a society, and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Duncan McKenzie; secretary, Miss Mary Davidson; treasurer, Miss Annie Andrew. Another meeting will take place on Tuesday evening to formulate a plan for the working of the society and to consider the proposed by-laws and elect the other officers. It is expected that the inauguration ceremony will take place on the occasion of Clan McLeod's eighth anniversary, which will be celebrated on the sixth of June.

CORNER-STONE LAYING.

New Parish House of College Street Church—Features of the Exercises.

The corner stone of the parish house of the College street Congregational church will be laid to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. The location will be at the corner of West Chapel street and Sherman avenue, instead of Norton street, as heretofore stated. There are a few members of the church, who were present at the laying of the corner stone of the present church, and these will occupy positions nearest to the present stone at the occasion. The services will be short, commencing sharply at 7 o'clock. The two hymns, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," and "Christ is the Corner Stone" will be sung, and appropriate remarks by the pastor, Rev. W. W. McLane, will be given. He will be assisted by Prof. Blackman, who will lead in prayer.

In addition to the articles already mentioned in the previous issue, there will be a copy of the "Journal and Courier" of current date inserted in the box of the corner stone.

Pupilist Dixon Fined.

New York, May 19.—George Dixon, the colored pugilist, who was arrested at the Grand Central station yesterday for being drunk and disorderly, was arraigned in court to-day and fined $5.

FIRE IN BETHEL.

House Destroyed by Fire—Loss $3,000.

Danbury, May 19.—The residence of John McNamara in Bethel was destroyed by fire last night. The neighborhood was alarmed by the fire and they broke into the house, which was unoccupied, and found the fire in a bed. There was considerable delay in getting out the fire apparatus, and in consequence the dwelling was burned to the ground. The loss is placed at $3,000.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

"Tribby" will be presented on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 23, 24, by A. M. Palmer's unrivaled company. Du Maurier's novel has been dramatized by Paul M. Potter. The sale of seats opens Tuesday, May 21.

The first act opens in the studio of the three musketeers of the brush in the Latin quarter. Tribby, Svengali and Geoko are introduced, as well as Taffy, the Laird, Little Billee and Mme. Vinard. Here the first intimation of the hypnotic powers of Svengali is shown.

The act closes with the declaration of love between Little Billee and Tribby. Many incidents are crowded into this act; the rare music of Svengali and Geoko; the love of the three painters; the awakening of Tribby to her position as a model—allegorically and connectedly developed. The second act shows the wedding banquet; the arrival of Billee's mother and her appeal to Tribby not to marry her son. Then comes the dance, a proposed elopement, and right here is the first marked change in the story. Tribby consents to run away to Belgium, but is left alone for a while, during which time Svengali enters, throws her in a hypnotic trance, and, while thus influenced, she writes to Taffy, and is led away by Svengali and Geoko.

The third act, which is by far the strongest from a dramatic standpoint, again distorts the story, necessary by the adaptation to the stage. The death of Svengali and the musical disco of Tribby are made to take place in Paris instead of London. Tribby sings the first song, "Au Clair de Lune," the voice being heard in the distance. Then follows the encounter between Svengali and Taffy and the death of Svengali.

The last act is the death scene, in which the hypnotic effect of the photograph is utilized. As already stated, Mr. Potter has performed his work marvellously well.

Miss Bertha Waltzinger of this city is one of the leading members of De Witt Hooper's company, which appears there on Monday, May 27, in the great comic opera success, "Dr. Syntax." Sale of seats opens on Thursday.

Grand Opera House.

During the engagement of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" there will be matinee performances on Tuesday and Wednesday. At the conclusion of the play Miss Annie Laughlin, the charming child actress, who will essay the role of the little Lord, will appear on the stage to all the little folks in the audience. This is a new feature in theatrical entertainment and is likely to interest not only the juvenile population, but the adults as well. The reception will be given on the stage in the scene which represents the library of the Dorncourt manor. Fauntleroy will be introduced to the callers by the Earl (Mr. Edward D. Dennison) and will shake hands with all. After the reception the tea will be served. Tables laden with the delicacies of the season and handsomely decorated will surely tempt the appetites of the juveniles, and with their new friend they are sure to have a happy time. Several young society ladies have been invited to serve the tea, and the affair promises to be as much a social as a theatrical event. The prices at the matinees will be 10 and 20 cents. In the evening reserved seats 30 and 50 cents.

Folk's Wonderland Theater.

Last week's great bill at the Wonderland will be succeeded by another equally brilliant. It is headed by the Donagates, Europe's greatest acrobats and pantomimists, who will appear in their sensational athletic feats and the pantomime comedy that have made them famous as the most popular vaudeville entertainers of Paris. With them will appear Clayton and Jenkins, who will present their wonderful trick mule Jasper in the quint comedy creation "The Darktown Circus." The pretty Washburn sisters, Daisy Meyer and her pick-aninies, Griffin and Grey, Harris and Walters, the precocious little Ferguson brothers and Allan May, complete the brilliant bill. From the names on this roster, this week's performance is likely to equal if not surpass the best that has been given at the Wonderland this season.
